

Bachelor of Business Administration - Marketing Major

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Do you enjoy solving problems for people, discovering patterns of opportunity, creating persuasive communications, influencing buyers, and strengthening brands?

Our marketing major in the Bachelor of Business Administration degree program is for those who want to become a marketing pro. You'll develop the essential skills it takes to succeed in a marketing career.

By pursuing the marketing major, you'll learn to:

- create, strengthen, and manage brands effectively and ensure they resonate with your target audience
- develop comprehensive strategies to enhance brand equity
- master the art of strategic marketing planning and recommend strategies grounded in thorough environmental scans and research
- identify market opportunities and create data-driven plans to capitalize on them
- dive deep into marketing research techniques, perform qualitative and quantitative marketing research to uncover valuable insights and analyze data to make informed marketing decisions
- embrace the latest digital marketing technologies to optimize marketing opportunities and integrate current and emerging tech tools for maximum impact
- create sustainable value through effective product management, development, pricing, and distribution to meet consumer needs and drive growth
- validate your marketing strategies and tactics by delving into consumer behaviour insights
- explore the psychology behind consumer choices and tailor your campaigns accordingly
- execute and oversee product launches in local and international markets, whether they involve goods, ideas, or services
- navigate the challenges and opportunities of global marketing
- innovate, analyze and design to improve business performance or develop your own new venture.

Choosing the marketing major means you'll be ready for success in the changing marketing field. Whether you want to influence buyers, launch new products, or build strong brands, our program gives you the skills and knowledge to excel.

You'll also have valuable skills for marketing roles in organizations, media or marketing agencies. Finally, you'll graduate ready to pursue additional professional credentials from the Chartered Managers of Canada and the Institute of Sales Professionals.

Minors

Opportunities for additional specialization are available through the following optional minors.

Construction Project Management: A pathway to business roles in Canada's booming construction sector, focusing on managing significant capital projects, addressing design, risk, and conflict management.

Energy, Oil and Gas: A curriculum designed to prepare you for Alberta's energetic and changing energy landscape, with courses on technical, regulatory, and economic aspects from the renowned MacPhail School of Energy.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Those working in the marketing field tend to be directive, social and innovative.

You need:

- drive and flexibility
- problem-solving and decision-making skills
- the ability to be persuasive
- effective stress management techniques
- strong project management, analytic, and motivational skills

- the ability to understand data to create short- and long-term plans
- a creative, outgoing, upbeat nature
- technical software skills.

You should enjoy organizing information, directing others, negotiating, and finding creative solutions.

Academic path

Those who have previously completed the SAIT Accounting, Business and Entrepreneurship, Community Economic Development, Management and Leadership, or Marketing certificates can receive course credit for classes. The number of applicable credits will vary by certificate.

Graduates of the SAIT Business Administration diploma - Marketing major may be eligible to enter this program in year three and earn their degree with a further two years of study.

Professional designations and certifications

BBA graduates can pursue one of the sales professional designations from the Institute of Sales Professionals.

With the Marketing major, you can also pursue the Certified in Management (CIM) designation from the Chartered Managers of Canada.

Credentials

Upon successful completion of this program, you'll receive a SAIT Bachelor of Business Administration degree with a major in Marketing.

Practicum, Co-op and Work Integrated Learning

During your fourth year (with at least 90 credits complete), you'll participate in a practicum or capstone project as part of the program.

If you choose a practicum, you'll work with an existing business to reflect, research, analyze, evaluate and recommend solutions to real-world problems, showcasing your skills to prospective employers. You'll be responsible for finding employment for this practicum, which must be approved by the Academic Chair.

If you choose a capstone project, you'll work individually or as part of a project team on a series of activities and simulations drawn from multiple disciplines to create a strategic and operating business start-up plan.
