

Business Administration - Management Major

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Have you ever thought about running your own business or helping one to succeed?

Are you fascinated by business, leadership, finance, making organizations work better, and planning strategies for companies?

We crafted the Business Administration - Management program to give you a solid understanding of essential business ideas and the skills you need to succeed in today's competitive business world.

You'll learn:

- the basics of entrepreneurship and strategies to make it happen
- how to promote products and services effectively, including how to create robust marketing strategies
- how to run businesses efficiently by understanding operations, supply chain and business management theories and practices
- how to plan, execute, and oversee projects of all sizes using project management theories and tools
- how to use human resources practices in real workplace situations.

Plus, you'll pick up the skills to manage and support a workforce effectively, preparing you for human resource management.

Get ready to tackle the global market by understanding the principles of international business.

After completing this program, you'll be set for various business management opportunities in human resources, administration, operations, and project management.

With this major, you will qualify for corporate management trainee programs. You can even pursue a Certified in Management (CIM) designation to boost your management skills.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Those working in management tend to be innovative, directive, and social.

You need:

- intellectual and emotional maturity
- control over their emotions and behaviour
- independence and objectivity
- energy, confidence, and creativity
- tact
- good listening and communication skills
- problem-solving skills
- project-management skills
- the ability to learn quickly and easily and share knowledge, teach, and train people
- the ability to work effectively as part of a team
- perceptiveness, to recognize an organization's dynamics and politics
- persuasiveness, and the ability to motivate others.

You should enjoy conducting research, taking charge, and providing constructive advice to others.
