

Business Administration - Marketing Major

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Overview

Do you enjoy solving problems for people, discovering patterns of opportunity, creating persuasive communications, influencing buyers, and strengthening brands?

This program provides a strong foundation in business and marketing principles and the latest trends. You'll be well-prepared for diverse career opportunities in content creation, digital analytics, media, sales, promotions, and events.

In this program, you will learn how to:

- conduct comprehensive environmental scans to assess market conditions, identify and target market segments
- determine the most effective distribution channels to support planning objectives and craft integrated digital communication strategies
- identify and target gaps in relevant market segments to meet customer needs
- create products that align with organizational objectives, and develop pricing strategies
- create communication strategies to maximize planning outcomes
- create consumer journey maps and identify buyer needs
- succeed in both business-to-business (B2B) and business-to-consumer (B2C) markets
- innovate, analyze and design to improve business performance or develop your own new venture.

You'll graduate ready to pursue additional professional credentials from the Chartered Managers of Canada and the Institute of Sales Professionals.

Traits, skills and aptitudes

Those in marketing tend to be directive, social and innovative.

You need:

- drive and flexibility to succeed in a competitive field
- problem-solving and decision-making skills
- the ability to be persuasive
- effective stress management techniques
- strong project management, analytic, and motivational skills
- the ability to understand data to create short- and long-term plans
- a creative, outgoing, upbeat nature
- an aptitude for computers and various software.

You should enjoy organizing information, directing others, negotiating, and finding creative solutions.

Academic path

Graduates of this program with a minimum 2.3 cumulative GPA (67% or C+) may be eligible to enter our Bachelor of Business Administration program and earn their degree.
