Macdonald Hall

With its beautiful high ceilings and elegant balcony, Macdonald Hall is our most romantic space on campus. Its 1920s architecture will create an experience for both you and your guests that is nowhere short of unique.

This room offers a ten-foot screen with rear-projection, black Chiavari chairs and five-foot round tables for your guests. Five-foot rectangular tables are available for your buffet or registration table and eight-foot rectangular tables for your head table. Should you wish for something different, we can outsource to best accommodate your needs.

In addition, we provide you with a media centre which includes a computer, laptop connection, podium with microphone, and built-in audio cables to play ambient music.

Irene Lewis Atrium

This open space accommodates large-scale ceremonies and receptions, while still allowing everyone to take in the moment. The exposed façade of Heritage Hall will enhance your picture-perfect memories as you say your vows. The three-story-high glass ceilings create an ambience that will wow your guests as the natural light dims into the night.

Let us know what your vision is and we will reach out to our vendors for all the little extras. We welcome you to use our inventory of wedding essentials, which include sled chairs, five-foot round tables, eight-foot rectangular tables, podium, and built-in audio system for your ambient music and speeches.

Odd Fellows

Available for a limited time, the Odd Fellows Ballroom is absolutely dreamy. Located on the 4th floor of the Odd Fellows Building, this ballroom is right in the heart of the city of Calgary. Inclusive in this ballroom are black sled chairs, six-foot round tables, six-foot rectangular tables, podium, and built-in audio system for your ambient music and speeches. Decor in this photo provided by Chair Flair.

The Odd Fellows foyer provides additional space to mingle or host a buffet. Included in this space is a built-in coat closet for guests to access prior to entering the ballroom.

Located at the back of the ballroom is an additional space that can either be added to the ballroom, or kept separate based on your event needs.
