SAVE THE DATE

Orientation Week | Aug. 26 – 30

Orientation is the kickoff for First8, a series of activities during your first eight weeks at SAIT designed to help you succeed.

ORNT 118: Orientation | Aug. 28, 29 or 30

Get ready to start this fall, meet your instructors and connect with fellow students. Your full-day orientation will include a program session, tour, lunch, fun and all the details you need for your first week.

Check your program orientation requirements to find your date and watch your inbox in August for details.

Orientation for Indigenous Students | Aug. 26 and 27

Oki, amba'wastitch, danit'ada, tân'si, hello and welcome to SAIT! In addition to ORNT 118, you're invited to attend this orientation. Make yourself at home in Chinook Lodge, learn about student services on campus, get tips and share stories.

Watch your inbox in August for details.

Orientation for International Students | Aug. 27

In addition to ORNT 118, international students are required to attend this orientation. Get an introduction to SAIT, meet fellow international students, learn important information about living and studying in Canada, and connect with the International Centre.

Watch your inbox in August for details.

COURSES TO DO BEFORE YOU START

- PREP 100: THE SAIT EXPERIENCE – This short course covers time management, memory techniques, effective note taking and much more. You can access it online after you're registered in classes.
- ETHI 110: ACADEMIC HONESTY AWARENESS – In this required online course, you'll have an opportunity to examine your own values around academic honesty and test your knowledge of SAIT's Student Code of Conduct and what it means to you as a student.
